Title: The Self

February 26 (WED), 2014　16:30～18:00

Abstract: This talk will consider Buddhist views about the self and their relation to contemporary Western views about the self, exploring ways in which Buddhist perspectives can enrich Western debates.

Title: Consciousness

February 27 (THU), 2014　16:30～18:00

This talk will address the way consciousness is classified and addressed in contemporary Western and in classic Buddhist debates, considering such topics as qualitative character, introspection and perception.

Title: Phenomenology

February 28 (FRI), 2014　14:00～15:30

Abstract: This talk will consider Buddhist phenomenology as developed in the work of Vasubandhu, one of the founders of the Yog▪c▪ra school, exploring the way that his doctrine of the three natures interacts with the doctrine of selflessness to yield a persuasive account of the nature of experience.
