

Lecture Series

Prof. Jay Garfield (National University of Singapore)

Title: Buddhist Epistemology

April 7 (MON), 2014 14 : 45 ~ 16 : 15

Abstract: Buddhist Pramāṇa theory results in a conceptual landscape in epistemology somewhat different from that of the West. We will examine the nature of pramāṇa and the Buddhist debates about knowledge this construct makes possible.

Title: Buddhist Logic and Philosophy of Language

April 10 (THU), 2014 17 : 30 ~ 19 : 00

Abstract: Buddhist philosophers of language, guided by nominalism and a suspicion of discursive practices, nonetheless wrote and spoke, and so required a theory of meaning and of linguistic practice. This lecture will examine Buddhist contributions to our understanding of language.
