(a) Academic outcomes

By participating in the seminars and workshops in Analytic Asian Philosophy, we had many chance to learn about the nature of seminars and workshops that hold in international standard. By sharing this knowledge not only to the students but also to the teachers who are learning and teaching in their respective subjects in our country, it can greatly contribute in teachings and doing research. In the higher education sector, research, seminars and workshops play important roles. As the fruitful outcome of participating this program, we got the basic knowledge and motivation of international seminars and workshops. It is the great contribution to us for doing comparison between international expertise and that of higher education sector in our country. Moreover, it makes us more enthusiastic to do research of Analytic Asian Philosophy. Therefore, by comparatively studying the nature of seminars, workshops and research in Asian countries and that of our country. In future, if we had a chance again, we have the plan to learn about philosophy more widely and want to study comparatively the different cultural and educational system of our country and that of Japan.

(b) Our experiences in Kyoto University

While we are staying in Kyoto University, we have a chance to study about the teaching and learning system of this university, the high standard of education system of this University, all the students and teachers strictly follow their disciplines, rules and regulation of their university, warm kind-hearted and hospitable students and teachers of this university.

(c) The content of the program

We participated in the following series of workshops held in Kyoto University:

- Kyoto Philosophical Logic (June 19-20)
- An International Workshop on the Cosmos of Dogen (June 22)
- Dialetheism and Related issues in Analytic Asian Philosophy: An international workshop (June 23-24)

(d) The impact of the program on your career plans

This program also impact on my career. This is because, we could also learn more widely about Analytic Philosophy and other related branches of philosophy. By studying this program, we can improve the analytic skills, logical thinking skills and creative thinking skills. As university teachers, we have to learn and teach through our lives. These skills are very important in teaching and learning. Therefore, this program also greatly contributes on my career.
